The Congressional meeting which was recently held by the Democracy at Mayfield, Graves county, in the First Diatrict, for the purpose of endorsing Mr. Magofin's position on the slavery quastion, was quietly arranged by a few leaders of the party, without the knowledge of the people who were in uttendance to hear the speaking on the same day. When the candidates spoke previously at Paducah, in McCrackan county, a bost of the Democracy were there, from all parts of the District attending the premium tobacco sale, and then a District meeting might have been held with some show of decency. Such was the course intended by some, but, npon feeling the public rentiment in the party, it was ascertained that J. C. Noble some, but, apon feeling the public rentiment in the party, it was ascertained that J. C. Noble and others would not stand the attempt 10 hand them over to Squatter Sovereignty in any such man-ner, and so the idea was abandoned until the canlates spoke at Mayfield. Then a few of the wireworkers from Paducah went out there, and finding one man more from Ballatd, who is a candidate for the Senate, and another from Hickman, a candidata for the Legislature, it was determined to hold a Congressional meeting with men from only four of
